BUTT

"The missing link, is the parentage of HENRY BUTT, who marr. 2- 27- 1791 in Rockingham County, Va., MARGARET CRIM, who was born Sept. 13, 1766.

He is a descendant of Robert Butt of Norfolk Co., Va. I thought perhaps you might have a clue among your BUTT notes. Thanks-

I had record of Thomas Brooks whose father was George.
at this point two George Brooks were found and the persons looking up record could not find out which one was the father of Thomas.
This Thomas Brooks is the one I sent on paper to you.

This is the data that was given me a short time ago.

Dear Mrs. Chapman,
your letter of Oct. 22nd received.
Am so sorry you have had so much trouble.
About the W. P. A. workers, I have been hearing about them for some time. In fact when they first started to work, they went to my brother's house & ask some questions.
My sister really enjoyed talking to them and showing them a few old things. Of course our antiques meant nothing to them.

Suppose, I started to say make out my line for "Colonists", but notice you say fill out blanks. No doubt you mean I shall have to get the blanks and send to you. My name was to have been put up this month, but on account of my great sorrow havent heard whether it was put up or not.

I am not what you call a "joiner", but thought it would be a good thing for my daughter, as she was told she would be asked father <sup>now</sup> my plans ~~is~~ are to leave Richmond in the Spring and come down here to live.

Of course there are "dames" and "Colonists" in Norfolk and suppose in Portsmouth but it would take some little time to get acquainted.
Therefore, I think it better to accept invitation to "Colonists" in Richmond where I have my friends.

When I get back to Richmond which will be next Monday Oct. 30th will try and find out something and let you know.

I thank you so much for your sympathy; the kind and loving words of our friends have helped me greatly at this time.

If I have not made myself clear and you would like to ask any questions, don't fail to address me at 1006 Park Ave., Richmond, Va.

Cordially yours
Helis H. Johns.
